

Report on “Grand Launch” - New Tie up with Bankedge academy for Skill-Based Training for better career aspects of Students

VPM's R Z Shah College of Arts, Science and Commerce in association with Bankedge has set up a grand launch on 12th April 2021 at 12 noon through online platform. 368 participants attended through Zoom Platform and 171 through live you tube streaming. Session started with welcome speech followed by a prayer song and lighting of virtual lamp. Mr. Pramod Mulgund, General Secretary of VPM, inaugurated the session and announced the tie up with Bankedge. He congratulated Adv. Vijay Kulkarni and the entire project team for prompt and grand launching of the program and accorded his best wishes for Grand success of the programme. Adv. Vijay Kulkarni, Joint Secretary of VPM lead through the journey of Project Team and appreciated the Project Team for launching the tie up with bankedge in a very short time span of time.

Dr. Anand Joshi, Advisor to International Skill Development Corporation, a London based multinational organization and a Patron member of VPM was invited as chief guest. He inspired the participants by his enlightening speech regarding career opportunities in public and private sectors. He also motivated our students by saying make your career with Bankedge by choice and not by chance. He expressed his best wishes for the successful implementation of the courses.

Advisors of our college, Dr. Keshab Nandy and Dr. Anand chitnis, acknowledged the accomplishment and assured their valuable guidance and support in the road ahead. Mrs. Rashmi Narsapure, Management committee member also attended the session and had shown interest in joining Bankedge course as a student and also insisted to give knowledge about investment banking which is in huge demand. Other Management committee members, Mr. Sharad Savadi, Mr. Karunakar Shetty, Mr. N M Gudi and Mr. Shidhar Shanbhag graced the occasion with their presence.

Mr. Santosh Joshi, CEO of Bankedge, briefed about the courses PROBE and PCPBF and explained the basic qualification, fees structure, loan facility and duration of the course. Ms. Sonali Sawant, Director of Bankedge guided how science students can also aspire for a career in banking. Mr. Santosh Joshi highlighted the current demand in banking sector and briefed about the type of placement offered by his academy after completion of course.

Advocate Vijay Kulkarni, announced that Mr Sanjeev Gornal has offered a donation of 25% of the fees to assist students from humble economic but good academic background.

The function ended with formal vote of thanks and National Anthem.