The saying "Winners never quit and losers never win" is true. This aptly sums up the book in a single sentence. The session began at 1:00 PM. Student coordinator Rachit Poojari gave the welcome address. The students appeared to be very enthusiastic about the event and were full of energy. Following that, the book review presentation which was the most anticipated part of the event, was started by student presenter Shilpa Sharma and Pranay Hegde.

Everyone in the room could see how they were inspired by the book when they introduced the topic, and their efforts were so impressive that they managed to summarise the entire book—which featured 25 great entrepreneurs—in just 30 minutes. These entrepreneurs, who overcame their own obstacles to get to where they are today, were very inspirational to me and to everyone else in the class.

Student debated after the presentation, and the presenters did a great job of clearing up all the students' questions and keeping the conversation lively and on topic. This type of sessions truly gives students a chance to speak on subject, discuss, and feel inspired. Every person in the room found the topic to be incredibly fascinating and encouraging.

The Session ended with Student coordinator Rachit Poojary proposing the vote of thanks and the audience cheering the student presenters.
