Description of the Event	The Second Term Training Program primary objective of guiding students on the essential aspects of report writing. The program aimed to provide students with a clear understanding of the structure, format, and content required for an effective report, includes data collection, analysis, and presentation. The training also emphasized the importance of clarity, coherence, and precision in report writing. This initiative was undertaken to ensure that students are well-prepared for their academic and professional pursuits, fostering their ability to create well-organized and impact-full reports. Our Field Coordinator Mam explained students about the important things which should be there in report and also cleared the doubts of many students .The program received an encouraging response, with active participation and positive feedback from students, reflecting its success in achieving its intended objectives.
